

New Jersey's "do not call" program has saved me from being constantly disturbed. I was called all day. One day I recieved at least 10 telephone sollicitaions that at times would be very aggressive. Do NOT overturn the New Jersey Telephone Protection Act.